Opening Our Doors

A Warm Welcome

What an amazing day it was - the day we had all been eagerly anticipating! Our team joyfully welcomed our very first resident, Mick, along with his family. The atmosphere was filled with warmth as they stepped into Almond Valley, and it quickly became clear that they felt right at home. To celebrate this momentous occasion, we arranged for a bagpiper to serenade Mick and his family, adding an unforgettable touch to their welcome.

We are so proud of our beautiful home and are excited for our new adventures. Thank you to everyone who made this happen.

From that initial warm welcome on September 24th, we've grown to six residents, and it's heartwarming to observe the bonds forming so swiftly. Our community is blossoming, intertwining families, staff, residents, and even little ones.

Recently, we hosted a delightful friends and family pumpkin hunt, in which residents, staff, and loved ones all participated. It was an afternoon of laughter and creativity as everyone joined in for some pumpkin decorating fun. The joy of making memories, spending time with old friends, while also welcoming new ones, encapsulated the essence of community here at Almond Valley.

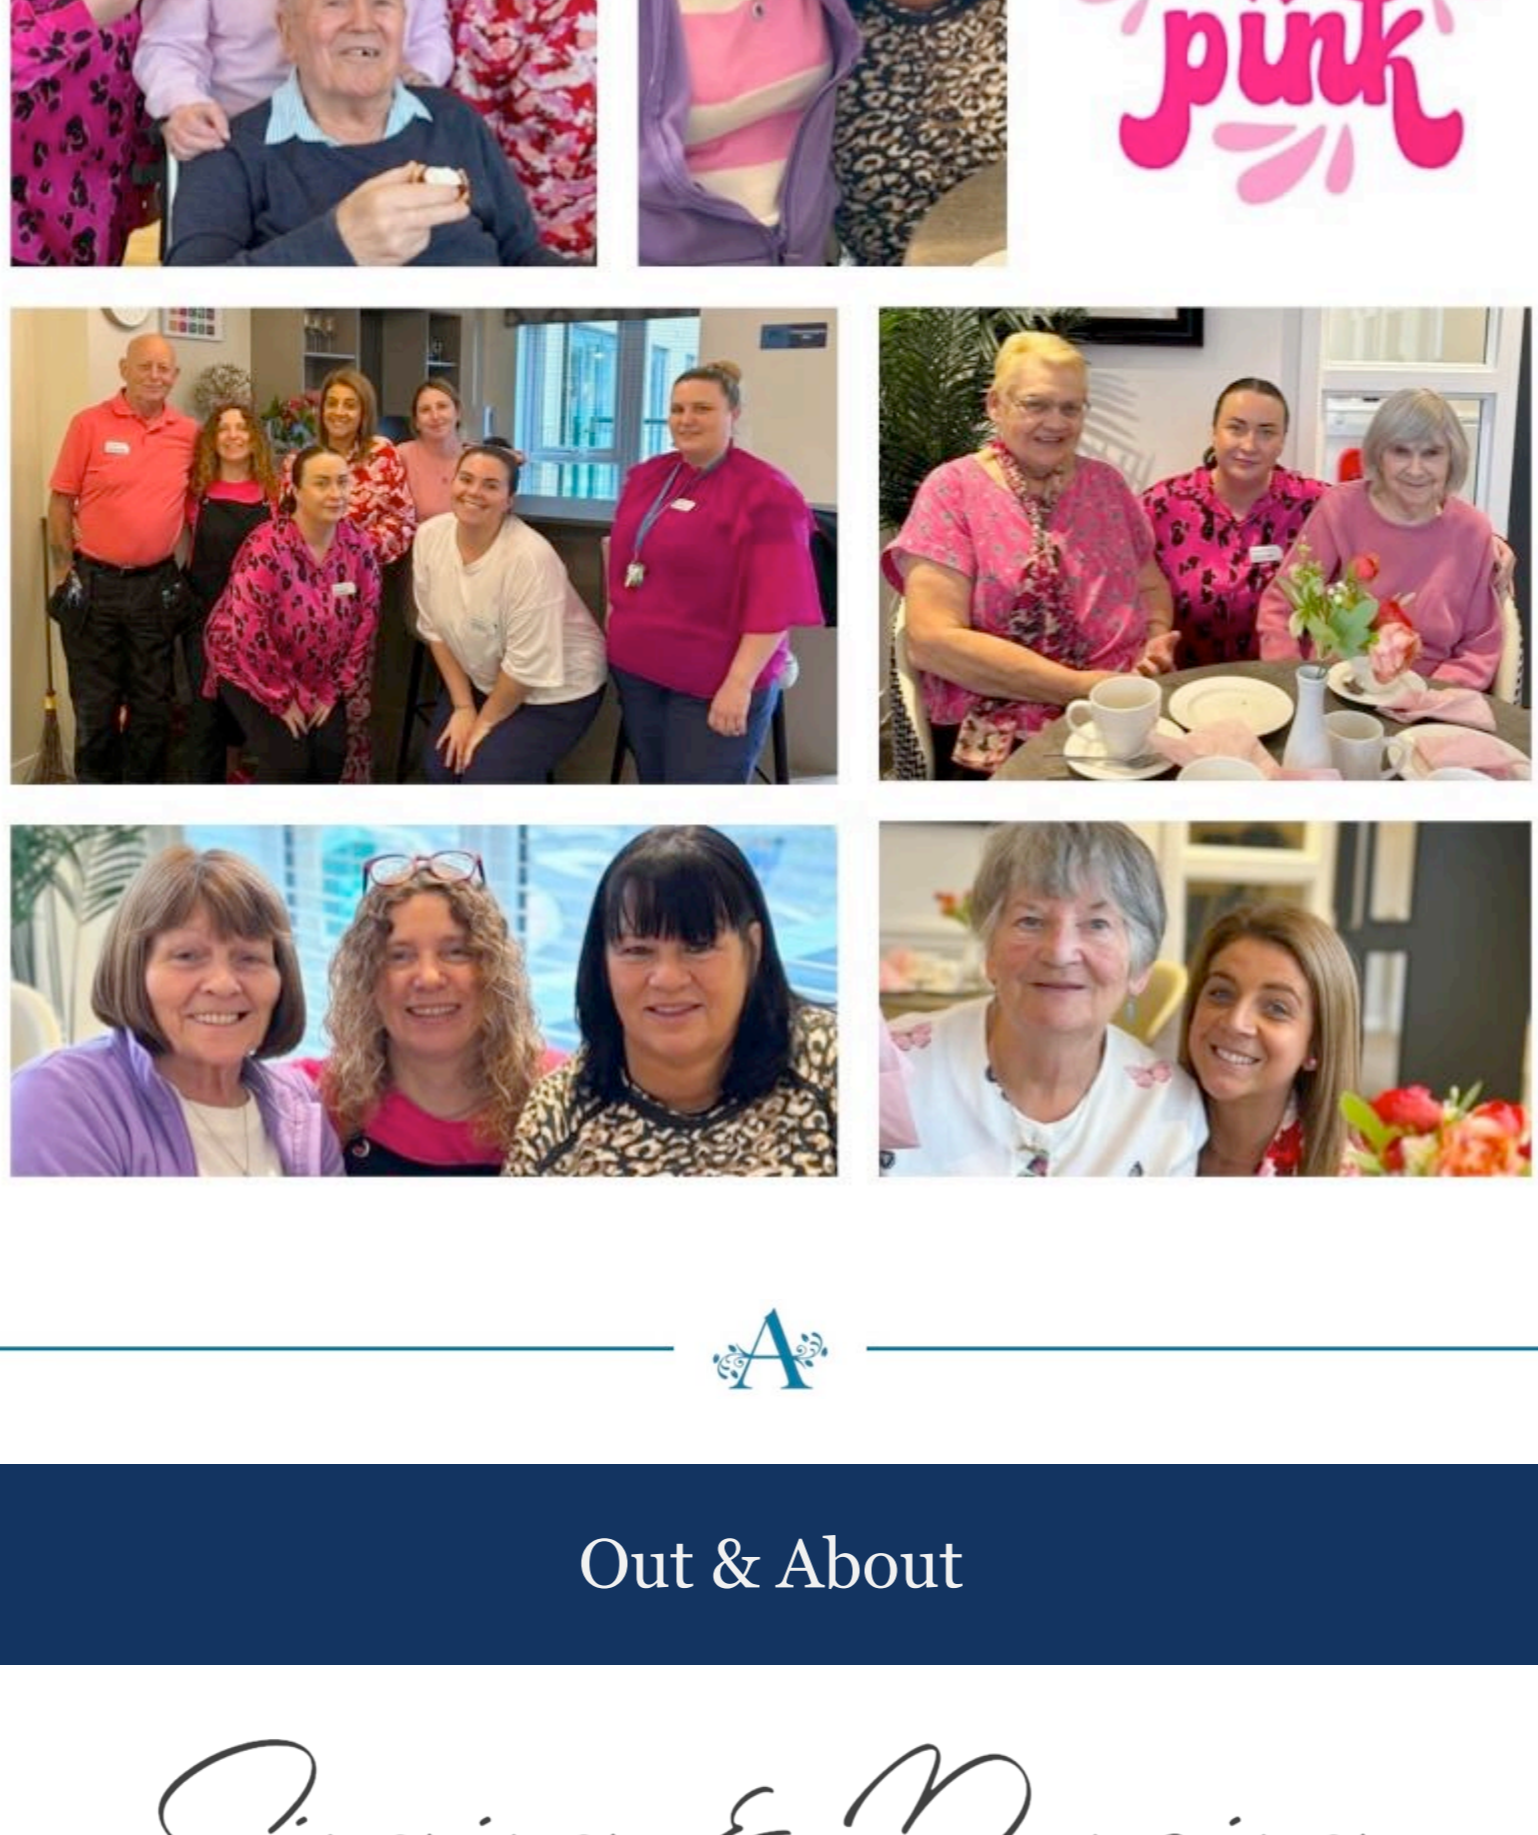

Think Pink Tea Party

Tasty Treats

After a week filled with hard work and unparalleled dedication from our residents, our café was transformed into a beautiful space for the Think Pink Tea Party. Our residents took immense pride in their efforts, and the results were nothing short of stunning. We are deeply thankful to all the friends and family members who came out to support this worthy cause at Almond Valley.

Out & About

Singing & Dancing

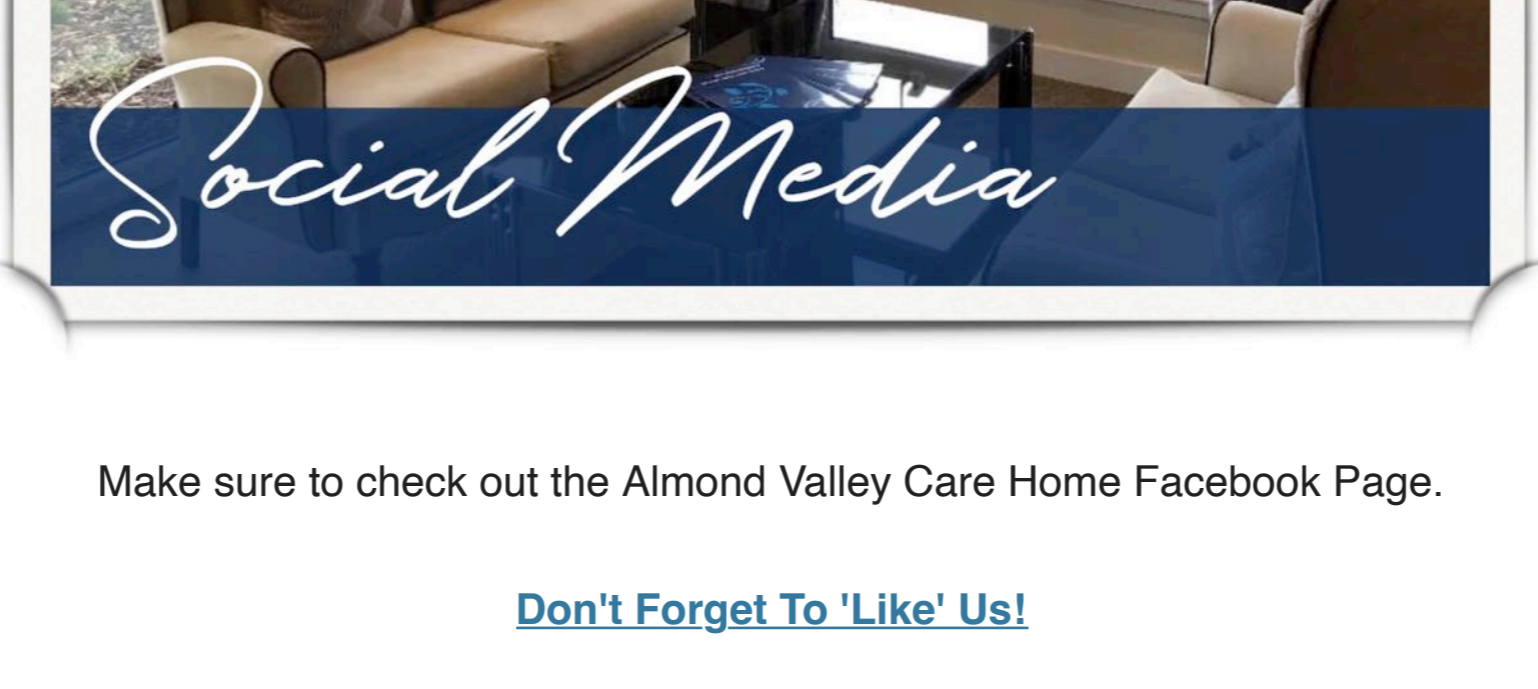

At Almond Valley, we recognise the significance of maintaining strong connections with our community. The Young At Heart social afternoon at the Hillcroft Hotel was a fantastic opportunity for our residents to mingle with both familiar faces and new friends while enjoying lively music, drinks, and dancing. It was a joyous gathering marked by laughter and the carefree spirit that comes with shared experiences.

We also thoroughly enjoyed a fantastic pub lunch at The Rowan Tree, each event and trip out and about reminds us of the wonderful journey we are on together, celebrating life and companionship at Almond Valley.
